

Tecnoform at Caravan Salon Düsseldorf Giving Shape to Your Outdoor Experience

For over 50 years Tecnoform has been an ideal partner for manufacturers in the nautical sector, the luxury home and, more generally, the RV segment, which intend to offer its customers a qualitative and avant-garde experience in the use of vehicles dedicated to living traveling.

Italy will be able to maintain its creative and qualitative leadership to the extent that it will be able to sustain and improve the working conditions and creativity of its collaborators.

The first innovation commitment aimed at restoring value to customers starts from the inside of the factory and the production site, the attention to the environment and sustainability see Tecnoform engaged in a continuous research and development process that places in energy saving and 'use of renewable sources a continuous reason for improvement having achieved a solar energy autonomy equal to 80% of the company needs.

"Listening" this is the first skill of Tecnoform that for years has been careful to understand the changing and changing needs of its customers because it has matured over time the skills of a tailor and knows how much there is no valid and just solution for all but only the tailoring and putting together with the customer can create the ideal conditions to create winning, recognized and rewarded projects that offer better profits and solid brand consolidation.

Lighter and more resistant materials enriched by taste and Italian style make surfaces and surfaces unique and unmistakable.

The creative imagination is born from the continuous union of experience, competence and passion.

Experience accumulated over years and years of work in the field and expertise refined with lifelong learning and attention to all industry innovations but it is the passion that drives the founders, the management and each contributor that provides something intangible and irreplaceable that returns to the end user of Tecnoform furniture and solutions that unrivaled experience of outdoor life of elegance and quality because form is substance and beauty is an absolute value when combined with intelligence and functionality.